

Other Trainings

Trainings we can offer as workshops or as a special series for professionals are:

- An Overview of Autism Spectrum Disorders (Workshop only)
- New Teacher Series
- Asperger's Syndrome.
- Teaming and Collaboration (This can also be incorporated as a component of other series.)

We are available to consult with organizations to help assess their training needs and develop follow up trainings for professional development.

Contact us for more information at:

Center for Autism and Related Disabilities
University of South Florida
13301 N. Bruce B. Downs Blvd.
Tampa, Fla. 33612
Phone: 813-974-2532
Fax: 813-974-6115

<http://card-usf.fmhi.usf.edu>

CARD-USF serves the following counties:
Charlotte, Collier, Desoto, Glades, Hardee,
Hendry, Highlands, Hillsborough, Lee,
Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas, Polk, and Sarasota.

Trainings For Families and Professionals

Center for Autism and Related Disabilities

An Overview of Our Trainings

CARD is available to provide trainings and workshops on issues regarding autism and related disabilities upon request by parents, agencies, educators, and other organizations. These workshops and trainings can be tailored as introductory or advanced sessions as needed. Call or email us to learn more about this service!

Age Specific Workshop Series

The following are CARD-USF workshops grouped by age. These sessions are offered with an emphasis on practical strategies and tools for participants. These can be requested individually or as a series.

Early Childhood

Tips on Toileting

The basics of toilet training. Various data collection tools are included.

Helping Children

Communicate

Targeting functional communication goals, and learning effective strategies.

Strategies to Promote Positive Behavior Changes

Determine the function of a child's behavior and effective strategies to promote positive behavior change.

Getting What You Need for Your Child

Information on services, supports, and programs.

How to Teach New Skills

Skills to teach in home and community settings.

Support Strategies for a Child's Transition to a New Classroom

Supporting a child beginning school or moving to a new classroom.

School Age

Promoting Social Skills

Strategies to promote social understanding and interaction skills.

Teaching Independence in Daily Living Skills

Practical strategies for teaching children how to function more independently.

Creating Visual and Environmental Supports

To help children anticipate and predict what is expected during daily routines and new situations.

Collaboration and Person-Centered Planning

Process of planning for a child's future.

Enhancing Communication Skills

Strategies to support the development of communication.

Adolescent to Adult

Successful Transition to Adult Life

Planning post-school outcomes, how to conduct an ecological inventory and access community-based instruction.

An Introduction to the Adult Services System

The adult service system and how to access its services.

A Guide to Self-Determination

Person-centered model to empower adults to communicate to others their life decisions.

Supported Employment

How to access supports and responsibilities of the individual and family throughout the process.

Community Living

Various options for residential living and the supports that are available.

Guardianship and Estate Planning

Federal and state assistance programs, guardianship decisions, wills and trusts, and establishing a special needs trust.

